RETREAT ACCOMMODATION OPTIONS:

(Excerpt [7-4] from the Pleiadian Alchemy's Terms & Conditions website page)

We can ONLY guarantee the double room accommodation if you are coming with a friend, another Retreat participant, and you have both reached an agreement to share a room. Otherwise, we strongly advise you to make a 'Single Room Accommodation' Registration. We made sure the difference in rate is small in most of the Retreats and worth considering in order to support your study and healing experience by offering you more privacy and peace. We DO ALLOW your registration with a 'Double Room Accommodation' option initially if you are not coming with a friend, however, if we do not reach the minimum number of room bookings to fulfil our terms of agreement with the hotel-resort, either the last in registering Participants or all of the 'Double Room Registration' Students will be required to pay a 'Single Room Supplement Fee' before the registration closure deadline in order to secure the viability of the Retreat.

AIRLINES & FLIGHTS RECOMMENDATIONS:

(1) For low flight fares, check especially the following airlines: Garuda (from any destination), KLM, British Airways & Air France (to fly from Europe) and China Southern Airlines (to fly from Asia, US and Canada). Remember that all passengers in transit need to arrange their ESTA/ETA [Check (C) below] days before you travel in order to board.

(B) Remember that to be allowed to board a plane you need a Travel Authorization, if your flight has a connection in the USA (ESTA-Electronic System for Travel Authorization - $14 USD) or Canada (ETA-Electronic Travel Authorization - $7 CAD). You can easily purchase them online from the official websites, You might need at least 3 days from the day of your application to receive it, so make sure to apply ahead of time.

(C) Please remember NOT to purchase your flight air ticket until our Final Confirmation is issued by email to prevent any rebooking inconvenience and financial loss in case any adjustments and amendments in the Retreat schedule and itinerary are required. (Terms & Conditions #7-2)

I have read and accept the Pleiadian Alchemy's Registration Fees & Included/Excluded concepts and I read the Recommendations & Options above.

THE PLEIADIAN ALCHEMY'S TERMS & CONDITIONS OF SERVICE:

<https://www.pleidianalchemy.com/terms-conditions/>

(7-2) THE ORGANIZERS RIGHT TO CHANGES & THE RULE OF FINAL CONFIRMATION OF OUR EVENT DETAILS:

The Pleiadian Alchemy reserves the right to make necessary changes and modifications to our Event schedules and itineraries, including their dates, times, locations, accommodation, tour activities, etc. As soon as the attendance of registered Participants, group configuration, and all service agreements (hotel, airport & tour transportation, tour activities, etc.) are clarified and confirmed, the latest by the Registration Closure date, the Pleiadian Alchemy will issue the Final Confirmation by email to all the registered Participants in order to confirm if the Retreat takes place and if it takes place in the originally established or amended schedule and itinerary. You will then also receive the details of the Hotel-Resort and your pick up from the airport upon your arrival.

(8-7) MEDICAL & TRAVEL INSURANCE:

All Retreat Participants are required to individually purchase and be covered by a personal comprehensive insurance from your country including a medical and travel insurance for the duration of the Retreat and your return trip. The included concepts must cover for not only the eventuality of the usual travel incidents such as: luggage loss, flight missing, delays or cancellation, adverse meteorological conditions, political upheavals or personal emergencies and impediments to participate in the Retreats, but also accidents, medical treatments, hospital expenses, legal assistance away from your country, and repatriation expenses in case of legal incidents, illness, accidents or death. In an emergency, the Organizers can only support in contacting the Participant's Embassy, as well as medical and legal assistance entities, but will not participate in any legal or medical proceedings, procedures, treatments or arrangements, neither physically not financially.

(10) CANCELLATION POLICY:

(2-A) If a Workshop, Online Course or Retreat organized by the Pleiadian Alchemy is cancelled by the Pleiadian Alchemy:

- for insufficient registrations numbers, or the Teacher's illness or accident, the Workshop fees will be refunded in full either when the emergency arises or right after the Registration Closure deadline, unless the Student wishes to (a) exchange the Retreat for an Online Course on the same subject instead, if such is scheduled, or (b) transfer His / Her registration to another Workshop, Online Course or Retreat (while fulfilling the Registration Prerequisites), or (c) exchange the fee of the cancelled workshop for the equivalent fee of available Private Session(s).
- due to natural disasters, political issues in the country location of the Workshop, or any actions of the third parties involved in logistics and organization (hotel-resort, transportation & tour companies, etc.) resulting in the failure to provide the agreed services, or any other unforeseen circumstances, the Workshop will be rescheduled so that we can continue our activities in spite of challenges. We strongly recommend purchasing your flight tickets with a fare allowing date changes and a travel insurance covering changes and cancellation to avoid any financial losses that, in such event, might arise, as the Pleiadian Alchemy will not accept responsibility for covering the expenses of the ticket changes or any other losses arising from the necessary Event rescheduling.

(2-B) If the participation in a Workshop, Online Course or Retreat organized by the Pleiadian Alchemy is cancelled by the Student, the cancellations communicated in writing by email (to contact@PleiadianAlchemy.com with a copy to PleiadianAlchemy@gmail.com) more than 90 days before the scheduled event are granted a full refund, those communicated more than 60 days prior - with a 50% refund, and those with more than 45 days prior - with a 25% refund. The cancellations with 45 days or less notice will not allow for any percentage of refund (due to the organization terms of agreements with the hotel-resort and transportation companies including the prior payment 60 days before the commencement of the Events), unless otherwise stated in the Registration Form. This refers to the full Registration Fee including both the Workshop fees and the stay expenses, such as hotel-resort accommodation, meals, airport transport, group tours activities and transportation during the retreats, implying all the payments made to the service companies to guarantee their availability and service on the agreed dates. However, in case a Student cannot attend due to a last minute emergency, The Pleiadian Alchemy will do their best (though cannot guarantee) to help you (a) by transferring your registration to another Retreat of the same duration on later dates (subject to availability and terms of admission including the Registration Prerequisites), or (b) by allowing you to exchange it for an Online Course on the subject instead, if such is scheduled. However, in these cases, the only transferable fee will be the one corresponding to the Workshop classes, while all the fees not corresponding to the Workshop, meaning the transportation and the hotel-resort expenses, such as accommodation, meals, airport transport, group tours activities and transportation, will be non-refundable due to the terms of service of the third parties involved in the organization of the Events.

(11) RESPONSIBILITY & LIABILITY:

The Pleiadian Alchemy will not be held responsible for any delays, losses, failure to provide service, accidents or damage caused to the persons, their belongings or property, irresponsibility, negligence or mistakes made or caused by (a) the registered Participants, or (b) any third-party service providers directly or indirectly involved in the organization of our Events, or (c) any other unforeseen circumstances. We will not accept any liability or expenses that might arise from the above-mentioned inconveniences and circumstances.
